New York, N.Y. 10024

Dear Stan:

I trust that you have been well and that business is booming and I wish you all the best in the year 1970.

I hope you moved the 1795-\$10.00 Gold and the 1808 \$2 $\frac{1}{2}$  Gold and made some money.

Stan, I don't know if you're interested but just got a couple of nice pieces in today that I thought I would write you about. I will quote Rock Bottom prices, so if you don't think you can use and make a profit no sense wasting both yours and my time and postage.

Items purchased today are as follows.

1803/2 $5.00 Gold Unc. with FAINT adjustments mks on rev. from 7 o'clock thru shield. A most desireable piece for any collection. ----- $685.00

1909 Alaska Gold 1/4; 1/2 and 1 DWT Alaska Gold Unc. real nice----- $180.00

1922-S $20.00 Gold Unc. ----- $210.00, I see Stack's (Louis Engel Collection) has one listed in AU. marked "a very scarce coin with high records".

Let me know if any of this merchandise is of interest to you. I haven't written to anyone else as of yet. Also I am making a list for the March issue of World Coins of Foreign Gold. Do you work with this type merchandise if so let me know and I will send you an advance copy before the W.C. hits the public.

Looking forward to hearing from you I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Trade is OK, see how easy I am to do business with. The 1863-S a grade better than the Miles coin which was graded Unc. The 1879-CC

Dear Lloyd:

Enclosed please find the five coins you sent. They are completely unsalable and you know why. One is bent and the edges are beat up.

I can buy 20 peso here AU-Unc at $125. and do not appreciate you sending at that price one bent coin and another that has been mounted with serious edge defects.

I think from now on we will have to do a cash business as your trades tend to be impossible.

I will get a new complete list out to you, but I think you are trying to take advantage of me and this just will not work.

I will look out for a VF 1856-O $20 that I can sell to you at $5000.

Stan Kesselman

* Stan - I am not trying to take advantage of you and I had no idea the Cuban pcs- are that low. I paid 125- ea for these a year ago as at that time the coin was scarcer than it is now and not generally available to my knowledge. On a trade basis I thought 125 ea. Coin was fair as I figured you could dump the Cuba in NY. 100-110<sup>00</sup> and make up the diff. on the trade £1000.00 with me paying a cash diff. on the Ecuador, all gold coins of Ecuador are quite scarce. Arnold Rosing is advertising the 1836 4 es ~~la~~ 250<sup>00</sup>. You offered 110<sup>00</sup> on your list. I only asked you 125- which is my cost. I want the 1860-O Double but I feel 1000<sup>00</sup> is the last cent for a dealer to pay. I offered you 10 Mexico legal dates unc for the 1797 Eagle ss and you wanted 11 pcs. They are very hard to get even in Mexico. On the 1790 PN VF I have been offered 175- as the PN mint is hot now. If you think I am trying to take advantage of you please accept my apology as I am not.

② Stan: Do you know of any 8 Escudos for sale

Mr. Stan Kesselman,
15 West 81st Street,
New York, N. Y., 10024.

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

I thank you for your letter of the 9th quoting me prices on certain double eagles. You list two that I lack--1881, 1886. I am not in position at this time to negotiate for the 1886 as I have already purchased three high priced double eagles in the last few months and am inclined to try to pick up a few gold coins that I need and that are not in the high brackets. However, I would be willing to pay $1000 for the 1881; this I believe is the Red Book price.

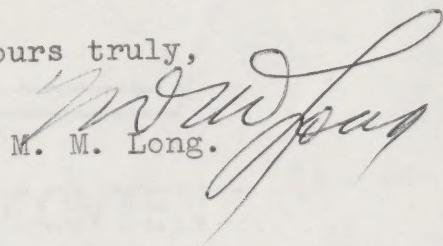

Here are a few dates in the Eagles that I need and are nothigh. If you have any of these, would be glad for you to make me a price on them:

($5.00) 1864 S	($10.00) 1864 S
1869	1865
1876	1865 S
1876 S	1869 S

Money is tight and interest is sky high, so I do not look for any advances in gold prices in the 1971 Red Book; more than likely they will take a sharp drop. Many people are out of employment and more are being cut off almost daily.

Will be glad to hear from you as to any of the above coins if you have them in stock.

Yours truly,

M. M. Long.

Dear Stan :

Enclosed find my check of $ 200.00 which is my deposit on your finest AU specimens of the 1871-CC and 1872-CC Double Eagles, thus leaving a balance of $ 900.00 still due on the two Double Eagles.

I figure that to assure my having both pieces reserved for me is to give you a deposit on both. I have more money coming soon and as soon as I get it I will be sending you a good bit in order to pay this balance in a very short period and I am sure that you will wait just a little longer.

I am trying to acquire from a certain party the 1907 Double Eagle with the Roman Numerals and with the Wire Edge in BU state and if I succeed getting it, would you accept it for the $ 900.00 balance and call it square for the above two Double Eagles ? I do hope I succeed in getting it from this friend of mine. Will be grateful for allowing the extra time, so that I may settle with you.

Yours very truly,

Felix J. Polek

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

I appreciate very much your response to my recent letter relative to the two Double Eagles that you have for sale. I regret you cannot accept my offer of $1,000 for the 1881 EF Double Eagle.

I note you mention prices coins have brought at Stack's auction sales. I have bought a few coins at their sales but I never did know anyone to buy a bargain at their sales. I secure much better prices at the sales on the Pacific Coast than in New York. Stack's is able to secure large crowds and they have a fine clientele.

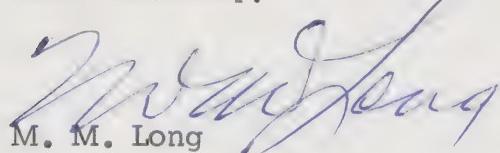

From the tone of your letter I don't presume you would be interested in an offer of something like $1,100 for the 1881 EF Double Eagle. In case you are not able to sell it at your price and you would consider an offer of this amount, please let me know.

Later on I may write you and get your very lowest price on the 1886 Double Eagle. It is doubtful if I could handle it before about June 1st.

You mention that I have an excellent collection of coins. I have been collecting on and off for a long number of years but do not have many rarities; have collected by dates. There are so many counterfeits on the market and robberies occurring almost daily, it is very discouraging to continue to collect. What few coins I have I keep in bank vaults and that means you lose the pleasure of handling and looking them over.

Thanking you and with best wishes, I am

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

Acknowledgment is made of your letter of May 1st with further reference to your 1881 and 1886 Double Eagles. I would like to have both of the coins but I am not in position to take them on at this time. Then, too, there are several other Double Eagles that I need that are higher priced than the two you offer me and I am confident that I will not acquire all of them. The question occurs why acquire some of the high priced coins knowing that I will not complete the set?

In the last few days I have received acceptance of offers that I made sometime ago for scarce coins. The offers were rejected at the time. One was a 1794 silver dollar; another one a 1799 large cent. In this morning's mail I received acceptance of an offer of $500 made sometime ago for an 1807 $5 gold piece, VF/EF, Liberty facing left. I obtained the other 1807 Half Eagle many years ago. I have other offers out and am not certain at this time whether or not they will be accepted.

If you do not move your 1881 Double Eagle by June 1st or 15th and can make additional concessions, I will try to buy it. I believe my last offer was $1,100 and yours was $1,300. We ought to be able to work out the difference.

I appreciate your writing me as frankly as you have and I hope we will be able to work out some deals in the future.

Thanking you and with best wishes, I am

Dear Stan:

Thank you for your reply.

I sold the 1871 3D. for \$190 today so that is out of the picture. The 1836  $\frac{1}{2}$ Cent is not a Gem but is a deeply toned Original without the wire edge found on the restrikes made 30 yrs. later. If cleared (I'm afraid too) it might be nice but I feel its better left as is. I will pass on 1831 Five for 1832 & 1835 as I would lose too much. I might trade the 1832 5 $\frac{1}{2}$  for Unc. 1831 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ Dol. Also interested in 1814 & 1818 5D. but Gaston Di Bello coins got only \$425 & \$350 for same dates in same condition. I guess coins are dead as are stocks! I would trade 1836  $\frac{1}{2}$ Cent & 1894 BU 2 $\frac{1}{2}$  for the AU 1814 figuring it at \$450 ~~\$350~~ which I know was too cheap. However all coins listed are for sale if take offer.

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

I thank you for your note of July 17th relative to the 1881 and 1886 Double Eagles. I would like to have had the 1886 Double Eagle but I could not reach the price asked, and the same applies to the 1881 Double Eagle. While I have noted that the Redbook prices have been up on some coins, I don't believe there was any justification. Many coins are selling at least 20% below the old Redbook and I have been able to buy several on that basis. I obtained four Quarter Eagles at Kreisberg's sale on that basis; three of these were "D" mint.

I am trying to arrange my affairs so that I can attend the Metropolitan sale in Washington and the A.N.A. in St. Louis. If I do not find gold coins at these shows at less than you are asking me, and if you have not sold your gold coins at that time, I will try to negotiate further with you.

In former letter you mentioned that you did not see the notice in the paper about the shipment of gold from Europe. As I recall, it was from Switzerland and had been stored in a bank vault in New York awaiting action by the Treasury Department.

You mentioned in a former letter that you probably would go to the Metropolitan and A.N.A. If I get to these, I will make a special effort to look you up.

Thanking you and with best wishes, I am

Yours truly,

9/13/70

Dear Stan:

Sorry you went through all the trouble to list all those coins but I would lose money on ant trade. I would consider $1000 cash for the two but even then I would lose. The nickel has more claim to be in the Redbook than the Gobercet Bois which were not even the adopted design. Nothing makes sense at all. Why should the 1913 SP (which was struck illegally) be listed at ,40,000 while the 1832 which was struck legally then and the adopted be excluded. I think that the reason it sold for $5000 back in 1962 was that people thought it might be included in the cat. Now that it isn't the demand is off. I think an ad in the Coin world would get good results as many unknowable collectors would pay a high price to have such an unusual coin. Anyhow I have stopped collecting as I can't seem to make any money because I am an idealist and only want sleepers and rarities with no buyers.

I would do better in the stock market as at least all stock can be sold at any time. Whatever I have now I will hold for recovery and you may say for cash anything that interests you if price is fair. Thank you for being so faithful a correspondent.

Best wishes,

Dale

Dear Stan,

Just a quick note:

1. The 1970 gold shipment ended up in the pocket of some P.O. employee. C'ans has been fitted. They'll contact you to verify, you had not received them.
2. Couldn't replace them yet at a decent price.
3. Didn't send you coins, you wrote market is terrible, coins unsaleable, etc. etc. So, how can I send you stuff?
Since now you write more optimistically, I'll send you some coins. Regards, George

DON'T BID IN THE DARK

If buying at auction is new to you
If you are unsure of what to bid
If your bids are generally unsuccessful
If you would like advice in bidding

You can take much of the guessing out of bidding at auction. We'll be happy to place our sixty-seven years of auction experience at your service, by supplying our estimates of the probable realizations of the lots in which you are interested. Simply send us a list of these lot numbers (leaving space for us to insert our valuations), and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Our reply will be forwarded promptly. If time is short, call us for this information. OF COURSE, HOW MUCH YOU BID, OR WHETHER YOU BID AT ALL, IS UP TO YOU.

Naturally, using our estimates doesn't mean that you will obtain every lot on which you bid. But you will be in the ball park, and should obtain a fair proportion of your bids, and at prices consistent with current market values.

SEARCH FOR STAMPS AND COINS

At Harmer, Rooke, we are constantly searching for fine stamp and coin collections for our clients. We seek United States, world-wide and specialized collections, as well as individual rarities and accumulations.

Our international reputation and professional integrity are your assurances of a proper and true evaluation.

Estate and individual collections appraised for taxes, auction or private sale. We will travel when necessary and can arrange for an immediate purchase at very favorable prices. No property is too large or distance too great.
